Art influences society and the world by changing opinions, instilling values and translating experiences across space and time. It's sure art affects the fundamental sense of self.

Painting, sculpture, music, literature and the other arts are often considered to be the repository of a society's collective memory. Art preserves what fact-based historical records cannot: how it felt to exist in a particular place at a particular time.

Art in this sense is communication; it allows people from different cultures and different times to communicate with each other via images, sounds and stories. Art is often a vehicle for social change. It can give voice to the politically .A song, film or novel can rouse emotions in those who encounter it, inspiring them to rally for change.
