“Academy Award-winning actress Natalie Portman arrived at the Oscars Sunday wearing a Dior cape embroidered with the names of female directors who were snubbed by the awards ceremony. [...] The Academy Awards' best director category was male dominated for the 87th time in the ceremony's 92-year history.”

Document B

“More mothers of young children are working than ever before and fathers are spending more time caring for their children. However, recent research showed that the gendered nature of early caregiving has not shifted dramatically and that caregiving, particularly of young children, is mainly viewed as a feminine territory.”
